

Voice Mails Left on Joe Barrow's Cell on Christmas (Dec 25, 2010) Christy is at work.

VM # 1 10:11 pm Christy	Hey Joe it's me, um, I'm trying to get a hold of Megan. I want her to talk to me. I need to see if she if she's ok. And um I don't know if you are taking her out of state right now, Stateline, but if you are you need to let me know. I need to talk to my daughter I want to talk to her before you guys go anywhere, so, if um she's ok with it, I'm ok with it, its cool. If not I need you to drop her off at my work and if you don't then I'm just going to call the police and uh, report her missing and if you guys go across Stateline without my permission then you're, you're, you're doing something illegal, so you better give me a call and let me know what's going on! bye.
VM #2 10:23 pm Christy	Joe this is Christy again, um it is not ok for you to take Megan across state lines, I'm not giving you permission for you to do that. I suggest you hear my husband back, you do not have any right to take her today, we did not make arrangements for it, so it's considered kidnapping. I want to talk to my daughter right now! I know I know, that you are holding her against her will, and that you are holding her from calling me. So if you do not let me talk to my daughter I am considering this kidnapping. And Michael is on hold right now with the police. I suggest you give her, give her the phone number and have her call me. Right now! Thank you. Bye bye
VM#3 10:30 pm Michael	Good evening Joe just to let you know that Christy's phone has discharged, uh, uh, could you please have Megan call me within a set time period that would be fantastic, um, Joe we really don't want to do this to you, please don't don't don't do this Joe, ok, I'm on hold now and I don't want to do this to you, please. Please don't force this ok, please have Megan call and we'll get this worked out alright Joe? Thank you bye.
VM #4 10:48 pm Christy	Hey Joe this is Christy again. I need you to call me at my work please, have Megan call me I want to talk to her thanks. Bye.
